Did you know...

Happiness House is sponsoring their second annual autism conference at Crosswinds Church in Canandaigua on Friday March 23rd. Jesse Saperstein, who will be the keynote speaker, is a 2004 graduate of Hobart and William Smith Colleges in Geneva. His talk will be based on his life with Aspergers and how he has chosen to live it.

Dr Mike Vorozilchak from Finger Lakes Chiropractic & Wellness will share how chiropractic medicine can help people on the autism spectrum and discuss health and wellness strategies.

Sheri Reynolds, MFT is the Director for behavioral therapy and counseling programs at Aspiranet Family Services. Sheri's sessions will be on iPads: Application and Use for those with autism and her other session will be on social skill development. Look for the registration form to be coming out soon!

Please visit our website: www.happinesshouse.org for more details on services.
